Water-Melons.

After all the water-melons for the heat of Summer is the real fruit.

It is not a cholera breeder either, as some insist, but a healthy, cool, juicy fruit that deals kindly with the stomach and digestive organs.

Speaking of water-melons and musk-melons, you ought to go to Kelly the grocer and see what a fine assortment he has.

Get some and let the children feast on them.

They are selling cheaper now than they will in a week.

—The APPEAL acknowledges the receipt of a 30 lb water-melon from W. H. Ched'c. It was so delicious that we shall look for a 40 lb one to-day.

—Dr. Kirby is in town.

—Gen. Sheridan died on Sunday evening. Another giant of the war has gone to his rest.

—The Rentz-Santley beauties appear tomorrow evening at the Opera House. Only a few seats left.

—Peter Musgrove will find answer to his query in the last Police Gazette, signed O. R. Carson City.

—A young lady residing in Wil-lows, Cal., has opened a mending and darning store. One in Carson would fill a long felt want.

—The circus lions have not been fed for two days. If they do not get some meat pretty quick they will be roaming about Carson helping themselves.

—For removing dandruff, Ayer's Hair Vigor has no equal. It restores faded and gray hair to its original color, stimulates the growth of the hair, and gives it a beautiful, glossy, and silken appearance.

—The Specialty Company performed to a full house last night. They will perform again this evening to a cheap admission, and Madam Zolo will carry a young lady with her across the high wire.

—A clerk of David Crosby, Virginia city, aged 23, advertised for a wife and caught an old lady of Chicago over 60 years of age. He met her at the depot, escorted her to the hotel and skipped to California.

—Ayer's Sarsaparilla is designed for those who need a medicine to purify their blood. No other preparation so well meets this want. It increases the appetite and rejuvenates the whole system. Its record, for forty years, is one of constant triumph over disease.

HAZZLE DAZZLED.

How the Circus Company were Treated by Frost and Sweeney.

There is a large amount of blasphemy on the streets just now by reason of the unexpected departure for San Francisco of Frank Frost and John Sweeney with the funds of the company.

The performers got what in the passing parlance of the profession is called the "Razzle-dazzle."

On Sunday evening Messrs Frost and Sweeney strolled down to the train, and while chatting with some of the performers about the beautiful natural cote of Carson City, the train rolled out. Suddenly the performers saw the persons of Frost and Sweeney blend with the beautiful maroon of the train, and the cars were out of sight when they recovered their breath.

The performers went up town and began to investigate matters.

They found that Frost and Sweeney had not been short of funds as they alleged, but had exhibited $1,700 in Livingston's saloon since they reached the city.

A PERFORMER'S STORY.

"We did a big business all along, and yet were always told that the receipts were short."

"We tramped across the Humboldt desert in the hot sun, worked like beavers performing, and all these weeks the proprietors, Frost and Sweeney, have been living on the fat of the earth and wearing good clothes, and we have been ragged and hungry. We have been razzle-dazzled all the time, and I don't believe we ever had a losing house."

"Saturday at the picnic was the first time we knew what the receipts were. If there were $66 in that house, as they say, there must have been $1,000 in some of the other houses we had."

"They have been trying to freeze out old John Forepaugh and his family, and it's a dirty shame."

BILKING REESE.

Mr. Reese, the restaurant man, fed the troupe and was bilked out of $94. He placed attachments on the tent poles and the elephant.

A QUEER TIME.

The circus originally belonged to O'Brien of Penn., and his widow leased it to Frost, Sweeney and Forepaugh. The lease ran out and Mrs. O'Brien telegraphed to O'Neil, of San Francisco to send a man up and take charge and collect the rent. O'Neil sent up Jim Donlan, who was with it a while, got some rent, and skipped out with his pockets well lined, leaving his brother to beat the railroad down.

Forepaugh, who had never seen a cent of money from the show, slid the elephant out from under the canvas one night during the performance, and has him under hand along with the lions and camel.

Some of the men claim that Donlan is not O'Neil's agent, and that his credentials are bogus.

Dispatches are flying back and forth all over the country after Frost and Sweeney.

It is claimed that they dare not go to San Francisco until the trouble blows over, and some of the men will go down there and maul them to pieces.

Meanwhile the troupe are trying to make enough to get out of town on't settle their bills, and are genuine objects of pity.

For Home and Family Use.

Geo. T. Davis has just received fresh from the East, a lot of Baking Powder, the purest and best made; a new line of the best flavoring extracts.

Try the new Hawk Chop Tea.

All of these he sells at reduced prices.

To farmers, all extra parts of Buckeye Mowers always on hand.

Try the finest smoke that ever came to Carson; $2 per 100.

G. T. Davis is the agent. jy7f

—Reese, the restaurant man, sued Ike Shanard yesterday for $94 on the grounds that Shanard had guaranteed the payment for the food eaten by the circus people. He has attached the tent and poles.

A large crowd of people are in attendance at the Court. The trial is still in progress.

—Stocks are smashed again.

NO ENGLISH IN HIS.

A Prominent Democrat Wh Will Vote for Harrison.

NEW YORK, August 3.—John T. Dunn, ex-Speaker of the New Jersey Assembly and a prominent Democratic politician, has come out unflinchingly for "lippecanoe and protection too."

"Yes, I am going to vote for Harrison," said he to a Tribune reporter, "because I am disgusted with my party, and have been since it became a free-trade organization. If the managers think they can bamboozle the working-men into calmly accepting $1 a day instead of $3 they will find on November 6th that they have made a great error. They will be hunting wildly around for a hole to crawl into and a favorable opportunity of pulling the hole in after them. It is the toss up of a copper cent with me whether or not I shall stump the State for Harrison and Morton. The Irish-Americans at Elizabethport will vote the protection ticket almost to a man. As you know, that is a manufacturing quarter, and if the Democrats think the mechanics and laborers there are a parcel of fools they are mightily mistaken. I am a Democrat, but I'll have no English in mine."

Refers Us to Major Dennis.

In this city, July 26, 1888, W. B. Churchill, a native of Nevada, aged 60 years.—S. F. Examiner.

The oldest inhabitant has been interviewed as to the authenticity of the deceased Churchill, but he is unable to explain. He refers us, however, to Major Dennis of Carson, whom he was dealing monte for the natives of this State about the year of 1828. No doubt he can throw some light on the subject.—Eureka Sentinel.

Major Dennis has been interviewed by an APPEAL reporter. He says he knows nothing personally of the deceased. He says however, he has often heard Cassidy speak of him as the youngster who beat him out of a $500 pot at short deck poker at Gravelly Ford, when he [Cassidy] was stumping the district as a candidate for the Mexican Congress. This was sometime in the early thirties.

The Only Perfect Remedy

For habitual constipation, dyspepsia, and kindred ills, is the famous California liquid fruit remedy, Syrup of Figs. It strengthens as well as cleanses the system, it is easily taken, and perfectly harmless. For sale by Geo. C. Thaxter, agent.

—Bob Ingersoll interested himself in the case of Mrs. Cigarnale, the Italian woman who killed her husband in New York, and whose sentence of death was recently commuted by Governor Hill to imprisonment for life. In speaking of the matter to a reporter, Ingersoll said:

"If I was Governor, and a woman who had been abused and kicked by her husband got up in the night and cut off his head with an axe, why, I'd give her a public reception."

What Ingersoll says is not law but every fair minded man will agree that it ought to be.
